Script

Our God is a God of unlimited light, and he calls us to share that light with others.
As we give it away generously, in a paradoxical way, we get brighter.

We are blessed by being a blessing, giving time and talents, attention and connection, compassion and kindness and grace is love.

It takes a shift in focus, off of ourselves and on to others.
It can't be faked or fabricated, it has to be desired.
It fills us up and we can't help but spill Jesus onto those around us.

So what would happen if we intentionally pursued a life of living generously?
And what would it take to be known for our genuine and extravagant generosity?

God has called us to live a life more abundant and that truly comes when we become...
